Roofer Co-Chairs National Maintenance Agreement Policy Committee

The National Maintenance Agreement Policy Committee, Inc. (NMAPC) — the construction industry's first incorporated labor-management committee — announced on October 9, 2007, that Robert J. Krul, assistant to the president of the United Union of Roofers, Waterproofer and Allied Workers, has been elected the new president and labor co-chairman of the NMAPC.

Brother Krul succeeds Mark Ayers of the IBEW, who resigned from the NMAPC leadership position following his election as president of the Building and Construction Trades Department.

The NMAPC administers the National Maintenance Agreement, which is a collective bargaining agreement utilized by over 2,500 industrial contractors employing members of fourteen participating international unions throughout the United States, generating over 60 million work hours annually, and almost 2 billion work hours to date.

Stephen R. Lindauer, impartial secretary/CEO of the NMAPC, applauded the election of Brother Krul. "Bob Krul has leadership experience of the highest caliber as past chairman of OSHA's Advisory Committee on Construction Safety and Health (ACCSH) and the Building Trades Safety and Health Committee. He has been a strong supporter of the NMAPC program for many years, most recently serving as vice co-chairman under the past two co-chairmen. He is a great choice to take the reigns of the NMAPC."

After his election, Brother Krul expressed his enthusiasm for the opportunity to serve as president. "I am honored that my peers have elected me to serve in this important capacity. As president and co-chairman, I look forward to working with the joint Labor-Management Committee to help organized labor, union contractors, and owners who utilize the National Maintenance Agreement to fully realize the inherent value of the NMAPC program."

Brother Krul will join Robert Hoover of Aker Kvaerner Songer as co-chairman of the NMAPC Labor-Management Committee. Hoover is chairman of the management section, while Krul serves as chairman of the labor section.

We congratulate Brother Krul on his election and are proud that he so ably represents our organization and all the International Unions and signatory contractors who utilize the National Maintenance Agreement.
