The meeting was called to order by Mid-States District Council President John Hayes. A motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. A motion was made, seconded and carried to accept the financial report as read.

Report of Delegates

International President Kinsey Robinson thanked the Council for the invitation. He discussed the economy, stating that it's improving for construction, but that federal Davis-Bacon expenditures declined over the last year and are expected to decline again this year. It's important to use our trust fund monies to create 100% union construction through the use of J for Jobs, the Building Investment Trust and Work America.

President Robinson reported on the National Roofing Industry Pension Plan, the National Roofing Industry Supplemental Pension Plan and the National Health and Welfare Fund, stating that all three funds are in good shape. He also discussed various resolutions that will come before the delegates at the union's convention in October.

International Secretary-Treasurer Bob Danley reported on the schedule
