HARRIS – WALZ
DELIVERING FOR AMERICA'S WORKERS

ROOFERTO ROOFER

BY INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT JAMES A. HADEL

A Salute and an Endorsement

On July 22 President Joseph Biden made a tremendous sacrifice and withdrew from his candidacy for a second term as U.S. president. This decision was based on the preservation of democracy and the best interest of the country. I personally salute him for this self-sacrificing decision, reflective of a selfless true leader putting the well-being of the country first.

President Biden's career spanned over fifty-plus years, and from the onset he has been a staunch supporter of the working class and unions. His legacy will live on forever, and I need not remind our membership that the actions of his administration have created the job opportunities we are experiencing today, along with the strongest labor movement we have experienced in decades. He has been the most pro-union president since Franklin D. Roosevelt. More importantly, he will always be the man who defeated a president that placed himself above democracy. We salute you, Joe Biden, for your lifelong support of the labor movement and the working men and women of our country. Our union, and the entire labor movement, owes him a lifetime of gratitude.

NABTU and AFL-CIO Endorsements

Shortly after Biden's withdrawal, with much at stake, the AFL-CIO along with North America's Building Trades Unions (NABTU) convened to discuss and thereafter endorse Vice President Kamala Harris for president.

Over the last four years under President Biden's leadership and administration, our union has experienced work opportunities and contract settlements not seen in decades. Unions have made significant gains under his administration's National Labor Relations Board, which enforces labor law and investigates anti-union practices. Kamala Harris has been working alongside President Biden and is instrumental in supporting his agenda to strengthen the labor movement.

These work opportunities will continue for years to come—so long as we elect a candidate that has the same vision for America's working families, and that is Kamala Harris. She will continue supporting the same principles and values. These opportunities will not only affect the strength of our union and the labor movement, but you individually as a member.

Everything gained by the labor movement under the Biden/Harris Administration is at stake. The far right's agenda is aimed at undoing all the progress unions have earned over the last four years. We cannot be fooled by the political rhetoric of their candidates. Take a look at the Heritage Foundation's Project 2025 (see betterinaunion.org/project-2025), which will set an unprecedented attack on labor unions and our standard of living if conservative politicians are successful in this year's elections.

These work opportunities will continue for years to come—so long as we elect a candidate that has the same vision for America's working families.

Come Election Day (November 5) the choice will be yours to exercise your right to vote. But keep in mind, do you cast your ballot for a presidential candidate who supports our union and stands strong with the labor movement, who created a strong economy and has the track record to back their position? Or do you support a candidate who in their previous term in office did nothing to improve your union, much less create union job opportunities that we are experiencing today? The choice is yours. ■

KAMALA HARRIS – TIM WALZ TICKET

The Executive Board of the United Union of Roofers, Waterproofers & Allied Workers concluded its endorsement review with the unanimous decision to endorse Vice President Kamala Harris for President of the United States. The decision is the result of an endorsement review process that carefully weighed the merits of both candidates and a nationwide survey of the union's membership.

The Board compared the issues that matter most to America's workers and how these issues have been handled by candidates Kamala Harris and Donald Trump. It is clear that Vice President Kamala Harris and her running mate, Minnesota Governor Tim Walz, are the ticket that will help ALL Americans prosper, not just the wealthy.

A survey open to all members was published in last quarter's Journeyman Roofer & Waterproofer. Members representing over 40 local unions submitted their opinions on this year's presidential election. When asked "Regardless of party affiliation, which candidate would you most likely vote for in 2024?" members responded as follows:

|-----------------|-------|-------------|-------|
| » Kamala Harris | 50.1% | » Undecided | 11.2% |
| » Donald Trump | 36.7% | » Other | 2.0% |

From day one, Vice President Harris has been a key partner in leading the most pro-labor administration in our lifetimes. Given the majority of our member responders, along with the unanimous vote of the Executive Board, we are confident that Kamala Harris and Tim Walz will continue to move America forward. ■

WHICH CANDIDATE IS WORKING FOR YOU?

JOBS AND WAGES

KAMALA HARRIS

The U.S. has added nearly 16 million jobs since the Biden-Harris administration took office. They have increased minimum wage for federal workers so they are not living in poverty. As California attorney general, Kamala Harris cracked down on wage theft and employee misclassification.

DONALD TRUMP

The U.S. economy lost 2.9 million jobs during the Trump administration. President Trump attempted to lower the salary threshold for employees to receive overtime, so that fewer middle-class workers could earn overtime pay.

COSTS AND INFLATION

KAMALA HARRIS

In July 2024, inflation fell below 3% for the first time since 2021, the year the Biden-Harris administration took office. Vice President Harris would call for the construction of 3 million homes to bring down rents and mortgages; provide historic down-payment assistance for first-time homebuyers; cap out-of-pocket prescription costs for everyone; and advance the first federal ban on price gouging on food and groceries.

DONALD TRUMP

Trump's 2017 tax cuts, which primarily benefited corporations and the wealthy, remain in place, costing an estimated $1.9 trillion over 10 years. Economists estimate that 100% of the proceeds of the cuts went to owners and CEOs, and the bottom 90% of workers did not see any wage gains. Many of these corporations kept their consumer prices high even after pandemic supply chain issues eased. As a result, corporate profit margins have reached a 70-year high.

UNIONS AND CONTRACTS

KAMALA HARRIS

The Biden-Harris administration has been the most pro-union in memory. In 2023 a final rule was issued requiring project labor agreements between building trades unions and contractors on all federally funded construction projects of $35 million+. The Biden-Harris Dept. of Labor updated Davis-Bacon regulations to modernize and strengthen prevailing wage rates for workers on federally funded construction projects, which will raise wages for 1 million construction workers over time.

DONALD TRUMP

Donald Trump stated in a Fox News interview that he thinks union workers make too much money, despite the massive and growing pay gap between worker and CEO pay. In 2018 he issued an executive order that restricted union representatives' ability to advocate for their public sector union members on the job. He also issued a rule making it harder for gig workers to be counted as employees, preventing them from qualifying for federal minimum wage and overtime—and the right to join a union.

HEALTH CARE

KAMALA HARRIS

Vice President Kamala Harris cast the tiebreaking vote for the American Rescue Plan, which lowered or eliminated health insurance premiums for millions of lower- and middle-income families enrolled in health insurance marketplaces.

DONALD TRUMP

Seven million Americans lost their health insurance during the Trump administration. Donald Trump's 2020 budget proposed about $1 trillion in funding cuts to Medicare and Medicaid and the Affordable Care Act.

RETIREMENT

KAMALA HARRIS

As vice president, Kamala Harris cast the tiebreaking vote to save more than 1 million union members' pensions by passing the Butch Lewis Act as part of the American Rescue Plan pandemic relief bill. This action also prevented massive cuts to the pensions of 2 million workers and retirees to ensure they wouldn't face poverty in retirement through no fault of their own.

DONALD TRUMP

Each of Trump's annual White House budget proposals included cuts to Social Security and Medicare. In 2020, Trump issued a plan to suspend payroll taxes that he promised to make permanent if reelected; the chief Social Security actuary said this plan would cause Social Security to run out of money by 2023.

HEALTH AND SAFETY ON THE JOB

KAMALA HARRIS

By the end of 2023, the number of OSHA workplace safety inspectors in the Biden-Harris administration had increased 11% from the Trump administration. The Biden-Harris White House's OSHA announced an extreme heat rule in July 2024 to address some of the most basic needs for workers' health and safety: water, shade, rest breaks, training and acclimatization for working in hot environments.

DONALD TRUMP

The number of federal workplace safety inspectors fell to its lowest level in OSHA's history during the Trump administration—not only from budget cuts, but from a failure to fill vacancies in a timely manner. Trump repealed the 2014 Fair Pay and Safe Workplaces order, which required federal contractors to disclose labor law violations before being awarded a federal contract.

Secretary-Treasurer's Letter

BY MITCH L. TERHAAR, INTERNATIONAL SECRETARY-TREASURER

Your Voice, Your Vote

Brothers and Sisters! Our union members play a crucial role in shaping the future of the Roofers and Waterproofer's Union through voting. The act of voting allows members to have a say in important decisions that affect their working conditions, wages, benefits, and overall well-being. When our union members do not participate in voting, it can have damaging consequences for both the individual members and our union as a whole.

Let's take the 2020 election when labor unions came out to vote and elected pro-union Democrats to all three branches of government. During this time there were several key protections put in place to ensure that labor unions could continue to thrive and advocate for their members.

One of the most significant protections for labor unions during these years has been the passage of the Protecting the Right to Organize (PRO) Act. This landmark piece of legislation, which the Democratic House voted in, provides a number of important protections for workers and unions, including making it easier for workers to unionize, strengthening collective bargaining rights, and cracking down on employers who engage in anti-union tactics. The PRO Act represents a major victory for labor unions and is expected to have a significant impact on the labor movement once it is signed by the president.

I often compare Democratic-run "blue" states to Republican-run "red" states when talking with our union members. I ask them to look at the union density and wage differences between the two. You will see that typically blue states have better wages than red states due to several key factors. First and foremost, blue states tend to have stronger labor laws and regulations in place that protect workers and ensure fair wages. Blue states often have higher minimum wage requirements, better overtime protections, skilled workers and higher wages for those workers. They also invest more in education and training programs, leading to a more competitive and skilled workforce that commands higher salaries.

In contrast, red states may rely more heavily on industries like agriculture or manufacturing, which tend to pay lower wages and offer fewer opportunities for advancement. These factors all contribute to a higher standard of living for

Blue states often have higher minimum wage requirements, better overtime protections, and stronger collective bargaining rights for workers. This means that workers in blue states are more likely to earn a living wage and have access to benefits like healthcare and paid leave.

and stronger collective bargaining rights for workers. This means that workers in blue states are more likely to earn a living wage and have access to benefits like healthcare and paid leave.

Additionally, blue states have stronger economies overall, with more diverse industries and higher levels of innovation and technology. This leads to higher demand for workers in blue states compared to those in red states.

Brothers and Sisters the internal consequences of not voting or a lack of participation in voting can weaken the bargaining power of our union and set us back with no increases to our wages and benefits! Please take the time on November 5 to vote and vote as your wages, benefits, and union depend on it! ■

The Washington Connection

BY JORDAN RITENOUR, ASSISTANT TO THE INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT

Trump Cares About the Rich, Not You

Vice President Kamala Harris and running mate Minnesota Governor Tim Walz have been building momentum since the late departure of President Biden from the presidential election campaign. I firmly believe we can count on a Harris-Walz administration to continue the support of unions in the same manner President Biden did.

Walz's track record for unions and union workers is right there with President Biden's values. He has stood on picket lines, banned anti-union captive meetings, and he is a common-sense gun owner. Meanwhile, there is NO way a Trump-Vance administration will support unions or the working class. I want to point out some of the anti-worker policies former President Trump approved in his time as president and discuss some of what he is saying he will do if re-elected to another term.

His so-called tax cuts for all people in 2017 were in fact heavily skewed to the wealthiest people in the U.S. According to the Tax Policy Center, the top income households ($800,000/year) receive a nearly $60,000 tax cut per year. For us common people, it is less than $500 a year. The tax cuts at the top—both for households in the top 1 percent and the top 5 percent—are more than triple the total value of the tax cuts received by people with incomes below that.

He doubled the amount of money that the wealthy can pass along to their heirs tax free, from $11 million to $22 million. The corporate tax went from 35% to 21%. There is only one trickle-down effect with this reduction: you and I will have to make up that tax revenue. Again, no tax break for us, but in fact a tax increase.

You can no longer write off your union dues or work clothes, and property and income tax deductions and charitable donations have been dramatically changed. They are indeed tax increases, not tax reductions. His running mate JD Vance has said people without children should pay more taxes. Well hello Mr. Vance, we already do—it's called the Child Tax Credit, which is a tax deduction if you have dependent children in your household. Those who do not have children do not receive the credit and therefore pay more in taxes.

Former President Trump has said he loves right-to-work. The only thing accomplished by right-to-work is that the boss has more control over the employees, and that is not good for the worker. More of our states need to follow Michigan and eliminate these laws for good. Trump also wants to get rid of PLAs. As president his board proposed language questioning whether building trades union agreements properly recognize the union as majority representative when used in PLAs. Thankfully this didn't gain any traction.

Former President Trump couldn't get an infrastructure plan done, he couldn't get pension reform done, he couldn't handle a pandemic, and he couldn't handle the fact he lost the 2020 election. Instead he spawned an insurrection, gave his wealthy friends a huge tax cut, and created ever widening division among Americans. He is not for the working class, and a Trump-Vance administration is not for you. They don't care about you, they care about Project 2025, the most anti-worker document ever.

Many of us are making more money and working more hours than ever due to the Biden-Harris administration PLA requirements, Infrastructure Act, and CHIPS Act. None of us will reap the benefits of the Trump tax cuts. Our wages and benefits are increasing as never before, and we must keep the momentum going and elect a Harris-Walz administration in November. ■

Many of us are making more money and working more hours than ever due to the Biden-Harris administration PLA requirements, Infrastructure Act, and CHIPS Act.

Marketing Issues

Climbing to New Heights

The United Union of Roofers, Waterproofers and Allied Workers has been working hard to increase membership with our valued partner, the GAF Roofing Academy. The Roofing Academy training is designed to provide an in-road to union roofing for transitioning military veterans, formerly incarcerated individuals, at-risk youth, or anyone who is unemployed and looking for a career change into the trades. Thanks to Recruiting Specialist

Roderick Colvin from GAF and our marketing department team, there is a lot to show as a result of this relationship.

The last two years we have been recruiting and training all across the country. In 2023 we participated in 14 GAF Roofing Academy events with over 100 applicants interested in a career in roofing and waterproofing. This year over 20 events have been scheduled.

At Roofers Local 2 in St. Louis, 33 pre-apprentices successfully completed the week-long training in April and were given the opportunity to interview with signatory contractors to discuss entry-level positions. Twenty were eventually hired. Local 2 Business Manager Denny Marshall said the program has been a great tool for supplying badly needed manpower for their contractors. "Plus it gives these folks an opportunity to get a career," he said.

These folks include people like Don Schneider, who did eight years

More members were recruited at the class held at the Local 36/Local 220 Southern California JATC.

GAF Academy was held for Roofers Local 33 at Greenwood Industries in Worcester, MA.

David Freeman, left, attended GAF Roofing Academy shortly after becoming a new father. He interviewed with Don Clinton and Local 2 B.M. Denny Marshall and is now a Local 2 member starting his career in roofing.

in federal prison and learned about the program through a job fair. He said the GAF Roofing Academy has given him a chance to change his life around. "I gave the streets 100 percent; I'm ready to give a job 100 percent now. I was putting my 100 percent to the wrong place. I'm trying to change that and work and make something different out of my life," he said.

Another success story is David Freeman, who attended the Local 2 GAF event shortly after becoming a new father. When interviewing with Don Clinton from Performance Roofing, David was asked why he wanted a job in this dirty, difficult trade. His answer: "I want to be able to provide a good life for my new baby." He was hired on the spot and is a current member of Local 2. Now to pay it forward he speaks to attendees at other GAF classes to highlight the opportunity he has been given.

We look forward to increasing these events in 2025 with GAF, locals, JATCs, and contractors. If you are interested in scheduling a class, reach out to the marketing department for more details. I can be reached at Jeff@unionroofers.com or directly by cell at (815) 791-0448. ■

HELP WANTED!

With the large volume of projects and requests for workers around the country, it is very important to use all the resources available to your local.

The International website, Facebook and Instagram platforms are great additions to post Help Wanted ads. These ads are shared throughout the country by many of our members and will boost the chances of finding skilled labor. Recently two signatory contractors told me that after their job posting was listed they received numerous calls to fill those spots.

To place a Help Wanted ad on the website/social media, email erinm@unionroofers.com or go to unionroofers.com/submit-a-job/ to submit online.

2024 National Instructor Training Program

The Roofers & Waterproofers 2024 National Instructor Training Program (NITP) at Washtenaw Community College in Ann Arbor, MI, June 23–28, 2024, was a big success and will continue to grow and become more successful each and every year. This was the fourth year for the NITP.

The need for skilled roofers and waterproofers will only increase with time. If we intend to compete and increase our work opportunities, we must provide our members with the most advanced training available, which begins with the training and information provided to our local union JATC instructors.

The Research and Education Trust Fund had previously provided regional instructor training sessions, and now with the NITP we have the capabilities to provide an annual nationally accredited instructor training program at one central location, bringing all instructors together from around the country.

Instructors attend two college credited courses per year with each one consisting of 22.5 hours.

Meeting the Need for OSHA 30 in Spanish

On April 1-5 this year, the Roofers & Waterproofers Research and Education Joint Trust Fund provided and presented an OSHA 30 class in Spanish for Roofers Local 20, Kansas City. Training Coordinator Ryan Anderson had reached out to the Trust Fund in need of an OSHA 30 class in Spanish for some of its local members.

The Trust Fund has a 20-subject Safety & Health Training Program (electronic presentations and safety and health booklets) that local authorized OSHA Outreach Instructors can utilize when presenting OSHA 10 and 30 hour courses. The Trust Fund had just finished having all 20 of its Safety & Health booklets and electronic presentations translated into Spanish, so that qualified instructors can provide the same quality of training in Spanish as in English.

This OSHA 30 class in Spanish was presented by instructors Joel Gonzalez and Juan Villalpando. Local 20 participants included Kevin Orozco, Jose Castillo, Alexis Escobar, Jesus Castaneda, Jecson Carranza, Cesar Rabanales, and Dery Gomez Ortiz. ■

The Trust recently had all 20 Safety & Health training booklets translated into Spanish.

Summary Annual Report for National Roofing Industry Supplemental Pension Plan

This is a summary of the annual report for National Roofing Industry Supplemental Pension Plan, EIN 36-6157071 for the year ended December 31, 2023. The annual report has been filed with the Employee Benefit Security Administration, as required under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Basic Financial Statement

Benefits under the plan are provided by Trust.

Plan expenses were $5,130,496 consisting of $4,567,784 in benefit payments to participants and $562,712 in administrative expenses. A total of 9,009 persons were participants in or beneficiaries of the plan at the end of the plan year, although not all of these persons had yet earned the right to receive benefits.

The value of the plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $190,614,385 as of December 31, 2023, compared to $144,781,170 as of January 1, 2023. During the plan year, the plan experienced an increase in its net assets of $45,833,215. This increase included unrealized appreciation or depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. The plan had total income of $50,963,711 including (but not limited to) contributions of $28,356,679, and gains from investments of 22,607,032.

You have the right to receive a copy of the full annual report, or any part thereof, upon request. The items listed below are included in that report.

- an accountant's report;
- financial information and information on payments to service providers;
- information regarding any common or collective trusts, pooled separate accounts, master trusts or 103-12 investment entities in which a plan participates;
- assets held for investment purposes; and
- transactions in excess of 5 percent of plan assets.

To obtain a copy of the full annual report or any part thereof, write or call the office of Mr. Mike Theirl, who is plan administrator, at 3001 Metro Drive, Suite 500, Bloomington, MN 55425; (952) 854-0795. The charge to cover copying costs will be $16.00 for full annual report or $.25 per page for any part thereof. You also have the right to receive from the plan administrator, on request and at no charge, a statement of the assets and liabilities of the plan and accompanying notes or a statement of income and expenses of the plan and accompanying notes, or both. If you request a copy of the full annual report from the plan administrator, these two statements and accompanying notes will be included as part of that report. The charge to cover copying costs given above does not include a charge for the copying of these portions of the report because these portions are furnished without charge.

You also have the legally protected right to examine the annual report at the main office of the plan at 3001 Metro Drive, Suite 500, Bloomington, MN 55425 and at the U.S. Department of Labor in Washington, D.C., or to obtain a copy for the U.S. Department of Labor upon payment of copying costs. Requests to the Department of Labor should be addressed to: Public Disclosure Room, N1513, Employee Benefit Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20210.

Infrastructure Act Means Jobs for Detroit Roofers

The GM Lake Orion facility is located in Lake Orion, MI, situated roughly 30 miles north of Detroit. Back in 2022, as a result of President Biden's Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, General Motors announced $6.5 billion in investments for the GM Orion and GM Lansing Delta Township assembly plants to support new EV production. This project has had over 7,700 tradespeople working on site since the start, with over 1.4 million labor hours recorded since January 2024. Members of Roofers Local 149, Detroit, MI, working for Royal Roofing got a large piece of that work. ■

Hawaii Roofers Busy Recruiting

Roofers Local 221, Honolulu, HI, Training Director Rick Subiono attended a hiring event for Maui County graduating high school seniors on Maui. "This is a perfect opportunity to do our part to share the trade with high school seniors who are looking for work opportunities," said Business Manager Vaughn Chong. ■

Roofers Visit Fallen Workers Memorial

The Milwaukee Building & Construction Trades Council held a 25-year anniversary to remember the three fallen workers killed in the tragic crane collapse at Miller Park, home of the Milwaukee Brewers. It was attended by members of Roofers Local 65, Milwaukee, WI, and the marketing department. ■

Empowering Women in the Roofing Industry

By Market Development Representative Deborah Chunn

I am thrilled to share with you an inspiring story of empowerment and progress in the roofing industry. A minority woman-owned business has taken a bold step towards building a more inclusive workforce by hiring several new female apprentice commercial roofers, paving the way for a brighter and more diverse future in our roofers community.

The company is Blue Chip Roofing and Waterproofing in Kansas City, MO, signatory to Roofers & Waterproofers Local 20. The owners are LaTanya and James Scott. By actively hiring roofers from underrepresented backgrounds, they are not only diversifying, but creating opportunities for individuals who may have faced barriers to entering the workforce and our union.

Theresa Hill is a young lady who has only been employed with Blue Chip for a couple months but is making great strides and has already become a valuable member of the crew. Another woman at Blue Chip is Gracie Hernandez, a fourth-year apprentice who transferred from California. Gracie met the owner of Blue Chip at a career fair. She is truly on the road to journeyman, and holding her own. The Scotts also took on a brand new hire in Christie Petree. She is new to this industry but has been very eager to learn. All three of these women are embarking on a journey that is difficult but will pay off for their futures.

Also representing Local 20 is Taylor Richardson, a 10-year journeywoman working for Kirberg Company, a signatory contractor that has been in business for over 100 years. Taylor's work ethic has truly set her apart and she is currently employed as a senior service tech/repair estimator. She talks about her career path:

"I started at the very bottom as a first-year apprentice like everyone else. I had to work extremely hard to get to the top because a lot of the others doubted me. There were a lot of trials and tribulations, but I put my head down and continued to work hard. One thing I always carried was a positive attitude. I think being a woman in the trades, a lot of people underestimate me, but I always make sure that I do my job better than the person next to me."

Sister Richardson's commitment to this craft, and her willingness to go beyond, have earned her the respect and admiration of her peers, as well as more responsibilities on the job. "Over the past couple of years I have been running the repair side. I bid and put the jobs together. I also run and complete most of the repairs," she said. She is also very active in local meetings and attends regularly. Local 20 Business Manager Steve Gercone agrees that Taylor is a good addition to the local and he could not have asked for a better member.

The willingness of these women to step out of their comfort zones, take on new challenges, and push boundaries should inspire us all to embrace change and champion diversity in our industry. ■

Union Tradeswomen Take Over Springfield

On May 16, women representing multiple building trades unions descended upon Illinois's capitol building in Springfield to advocate and educate the public about their growing presence in the trades.

Organized by the International Union of Painters and Allied Trades, Tradeswomen Take Over Springfield was established to highlight the achievements and strength of tradeswomen, who play a significant role in the labor force, while promoting trade opportunities.

The event launched with a press conference featuring tradeswomen, labor union leaders and lawmakers advocating for comprehensive legislation and workforce investments to expand access to trade careers for women and minorities. Roofers Marketing Rep. Deborah Chunn spoke at the press event about the growing movement of women in the trades. "Women are stepping up, breaking barriers, and embracing the challenges that come with this dynamic profession. We're proving that gender is not a limitation," she said.

"A lot of times when I try to talk to women about joining, they're like,

'but I don't see any other women there.' They think that means there's not a place for us. But not only is there a place for us, but we are really good at these jobs!" said Krissy Webber, a member of Roofers Local 97 who works on the admin side for several Roofers locals.

The inaugural event was successful in its aim as it picked up a lot of local media coverage. Women young and old were introduced to the building trades in a positive way that will leave a lasting impression and, hopefully, an open mind to a new kind of career. ■

OUT-DOOR LIFE

Rare Tiger Musky

Local 96 Wisconsin area Business Agent Nick Brenner caught this tiger musky in Taylor County, Wisconsin. Many consider a tiger musky the rarest of all trophies. They are a naturally occurring hybrid of a male northern pike and female musky.

Vice President Candidate Walz Supports Roofers and Shooting Sports

Minnesota Governor and candidate for vice president of the United States Tim Walz joined the Roofers International shooting team at Union Sportsmen's Alliance's annual Roofers Twin Cities Sporting Clays Shoot. Governor Walz, an avid hunter and sporting clays shooter, helped the Roofers team place third in A Class during the event.

International Union Receives Conservation Award from USA

During the Union Sportsmen's Alliance (USA) Annual Conservation Gala in June, International President Jim Hadel and International Secretary-Treasurer Mitch Terhaar accepted awards on behalf of the International Union membership.

Each year the USA honors unions for their efforts in raising funds for conservation. This year the Roofers Union received the award for the highest gross sporting clays event and the highest net sporting clays event. The International Union sends its thanks to the members of Local 96, Minneapolis, MN, for all their hard work and dedication hosting the event.

Minutes of the Indiana District Council

The meeting of the Indiana Roofers District Council was held August 2024 at Roofers Local 119 in Indianapolis, IN.

International Reports

International Vice President Joe Pozzi discussed the potential political impact of Republicans regaining control of the White House, including threats to union apprenticeship programs, PLAs, and Davis-Bacon jobs. We must educate union members about these issues and the Republican agenda.

International Representative Kevin King shared his experience assisting a local in Iowa where a former business manager was sentenced to federal prison and ordered to repay $33,000 to the union after pleading guilty to bank fraud. He urged members to review and update their constitution and by-laws, as some have not been updated for many years.

Asst. Marketing Director Bill Alexander thanked the council for the assistance with compiling the membership expelled list, which is nearly complete and will help improve retention in roofing. He discussed job opportunities across the U.S., including a major project in Idaho and the availability of shingles in Chicago.

Delegate Reports

Marcus Bass, Local 26, reported the council's financials. Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the financial statement. He provided an update on a four-week strike that resulted in a new four-year contract with a large increase and specialty pay raises. He discussed ongoing issues with contractors and other locals.

Scott Cooper, Local 26, highlighted strong recruitment efforts but noted challenges in placing certain individuals due to contractor preferences. He discussed issues with insurance transfers, making it difficult for individuals to maintain policies.

Mike Durham, Local 106, discussed ongoing efforts to develop policies and guidelines for the local, including recruitment strategies and increasing visibility through billboards for the JATC program. He provided updates on local jobs and the resolution of related issues.

Clint Grayless, Local 150, reported issues with contractors from other areas failing to check in and having special job requirements. The local recently roofed a homeless veteran's project. He announced his intention to run for president of the building trades in his area and mentioned a significant PLA project in the area that went non-union on their part of the work.

Brian Smith, Local 119, said work is steady and recruitment is going well, but noted challenges with retention as individuals are leaving faster than they are coming in. He discussed major upcoming projects and the impact of the contract raise and assessment increase.

Charles Waddell, Local 23, reported issues with contractors on NMA projects filing extensions to remain NMA projects, preventing strikes, and imposing fines for non-compliance. He noted a high volume of work in the area.

A motion was made, seconded and approved to sponsor the Chicago Roofers JATC for the apprenticeship competition.

Charles Waddell conducted a review of the current constitution and by-laws. He appointed a committee to review the minutes and update the documents, which will be presented at the next meeting.

Elections were held, resulting in the following officers being elected by white ballot: Joshua Land, recording secretary; Scott Cooper, treasurer; Charles Waddell, president; and Clint Grayless, vice president.

Motion was made, seconded and carried for a $50 payment to the recording secretary and secretary-treasurer to be paid quarterly, totaling $200 annually.

Recorded by,
Joshua Land

Minutes of the Northwest District Council

The meeting of the Northwest District Council of Roofers was held July 26, 2024, via Zoom.

Reports of Delegates and Guests

Travis Hopkins, Local 49, said work is steady with many contractors having overtime available. Membership numbers are steady, but the hours are increasing. The local is assessing if its push for retention and advertising campaign are having an effect. After numerous falls in Oregon the local started a campaign for no more falls, offering OSHA 10 training to many targeted shops to combat this, in hopes of also opening lines of communication with contractors and getting contact information of future members. Local 49 had an election where all twelve positions were white balloted.

Eddy Ramos, Local 54, said they are building their outdoor mock-up for torch down and hot rubber. The cement masons' apprenticeship helped build the forms and pour the concrete pad. They are working with signatories to put up a billboard with everyone's logos in a targeted campaign to get journey-level workers to join. New organizer David Gonzales is learning the job and putting in a lot of effort. The local has instituted a "second chance committee" that focuses on organizing newly released individuals who want change.

Raymundo Gallegos, Local 58, discussed a contractor that has a lot of military base work and needs roofers with clean backgrounds for access. Monument Roofing, a Tecta America Company, signed a new agreement with the local. They want to hire 150 roofers in three years. The local is in negotiations for a one-year agreement with Central States and a two-year agreement with Monument.

Soledad Velasquez, Local 91, said the local is doing great and things are looking better. Utah Tile & Roofing is working on Temple Square. Superior Roofing has a job in Morgan, UT. Contractors are working on more schools.

Richard Geyer, Local 153, discussed the local's newly ratified contract. Work is looking good well into 2025. Local 153 partnered with GAF Academy to have direct entry into the apprenticeship program, and they have been averaging 1-2 apprentices from each class. They are looking at adding a hiring office in Cowlitz County and offering remote training in that area to help attract new members and contractors.

Mike Baker, Local 189, has visited several non-union jobsites to talk about benefits of becoming union. The workers are interested in the health insurance plan. He discussed a biodiesel project in Eastern Washington and the Boise Micron job. Signatory contractors are booked well into 2025 with projects at the Hanford nuclear plant and Washington State University.

International Representative Leo Marsura discussed AFL-CIO and NABTU endorsements of Kamala Harris for president. Be sure to attend your pre-job meetings and claim our work. Be sure to affiliate with building trades organizations, and if you are affiliated make sure they are pressing for project labor agreements.

Racheal Geyer, Pierce County Roofers JATC, said the program has 130 apprentices with 8.5% being female. They were recently awarded the WA Grant for Apprenticeship and a one-time bridge grant stipend. Payments will assist with apprentice retention. Two of their apprentices competed in the National Apprenticeship Competition and took third place. Their program will host the Western States Regional Roofing Competition in November.

DISTRICT COUNCIL MINUTES

Jason Barthel, OR & SW WA Roofers & Waterproofers Apprenticeship, said the program has 208 apprentices with 5.2% female participation. The recent CBA went well for the JATC and they were able to increase funding level to 1.75% of total package. The program has a waiting pool of apprentices wanting to join our trade for the first time in a long time. Local hours are up about 80,000 hours from the previous year. The program sent one competitor to the National Apprenticeship Competition. Dylan Butler won first place in the advanced category, which is a testament to the quality of training our program provides.

Mike Baker, Local 189, reported the local has 38 apprentices. Contractors have been taking more applicants as work is in full swing. He makes regular jobsite visits to check on the progress of the apprentices. Upcoming classes are scheduled for 2025 at the training center at Spokane Community College. Next hiring event will be held at the Spokane County Fairgrounds.

New business was discussed, including GAF Roofing Academy, social media, and the upcoming district council audit.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting October 10 in Spokane, WA.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 11:35 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard Geyer
Secretary to the Council

Report of International Representative Mike Vasey

I start this report meeting with Local 86, Columbus, OH, Business Manager Marvin Cochran about apprentice readiness program (ARP) Building Futures and Columbus School District's project award process. We checked multiple ongoing project sites and reviewed progress at the Honda battery plant. I then worked on a jurisdiction dispute filed by another trade in Toledo, OH, against Roofers Local 134, as assigned by President Hadel.

I traveled to Cleveland, OH, Local 44 JATC training center for the Mid-States Council meeting where the fall apprentice competition was on the agenda. Next, as assigned, I traveled to Washington, DC, to attend the International Executive Board meeting and North America's Building Trades Unions legislative conference. I returned to Cleveland to complete the biannual representative review of Local 44 and area update with Business Manager John Wasilko.

I worked on a jurisdiction dispute filed by Buffalo, NY, Local 74 Business Manager Mike Doyle for waterproofing against another local area trade. Next I traveled to Local 86, Columbus, OH, to meet with Business Manager Cochran and Local 88, Canton, OH, to meet with Business Manager James Moyers to complete biannual reviews and review negotiations. I traveled back to Cleveland to attend executive board and regular meetings. I also reviewed projects and finances with Local 44 officers and members and attended the joint pension, health and welfare meeting.

I went to Wheeling, WV, to complete the biannual review of Local 188 and discuss negotiations with Business Manager Chuck Gracik. I then worked with International V.P. Mike Kujawa and Local 74, Buffalo, NY, Business Manager Mike Doyle to complete the biannual review. Next I traveled to Toledo, OH, for a school pre-job with Local 134 Business Manager/International V.P. Mike Kujawa. The project is being done under a PLA where another trade claimed the roofing jurisdiction. A dispute was filed and rectified, with the employer signing with Local 134.

I traveled to Parkersburg, WV, to complete the biannual review with Local 242 Business Manager

Tim Maxcy, then to Charleston, WV, to complete the review and area update with Local 185 Business Manager Ray Flanagan. I attended Local 185's inaugural membership picnic, which was well attended. I then traveled to Dayton, OH, and met with Local 75 Business Manager James Stiles to complete biannual review. I traveled to Pittsburgh, PA, to complete the review and update the Local 37 area with Business Manager John Flatt. I also reviewed the ongoing election procedure that was in process.

I next traveled to Columbus, OH, to help give journeyman tests to five apprentices that had completed the program. All five passed the test. I then traveled to Wheeling, WV, Local 188 to attend executive board and special negotiations meetings. I finished the quarter working on a trade jurisdiction filed by Local 22, Rochester, NY, Business Manager Adam Hoffman against another trade for waterproofing. I worked with Local 88 to include modification amendments in original text of a new agreement. I also assisted Local 188 with ongoing negotiations and arbitration.

Please remember to VOTE UNION November 5, 2024! ■

Report of International Representative Kevin King

I begin this report in Local 20, Kansas City, MO, where I met with Business Manager Steve Gercone and conducted a review on the local. I made a suggestion to change a couple of things in their constitution and by-laws. We also discussed a few policies that should be put in place.

Next, I headed to Local 32, Rock Island, IL, where I met with Business Manager Don Taets. I conducted a review on the local. I also attended their executive board meeting to go over their responsibilities as officers. I suggested that the local needs to get their constitution and by-laws updated as soon as they can and put a couple of policies in place as well.

I then traveled to Local 106, Evansville, IN, to meet with Business Manager Mike Durham and conduct a review on the local. I made some suggestions on adding language to the constitution and by-laws and getting a few policies put in place. I then headed to Local 142, Des Moines, IA, to meet with Business Manager Mike Soroka. I conducted a review on the local then drafted up language that should be made to the constitution and by-laws. We discussed some policies that should be put in place in the local and I helped draft up language for them.

My next stop was Local 97, Champaign, IL, to meet with Business Manager Jason York. I conducted a review on the local and went over the review with the executive board. I also went over their responsibilities as elected officers of the local. I talked to them about some policies that need to be in place and gave them a copy of the policies. The executive board approved the policies. I also attended their union meeting where I discussed the review and the policies that were approved and the importance of having these policies in place.

Next, I went to Local 143, Oklahoma City, OK, to work with Business Manager Ron Martin. I attended their union meeting and talked to the officers about their responsibilities in the local. I then conducted a review on the local. I met with Brother Ron and the president of the local to go over my concerns that I found in conducting the review.

I then traveled to Washington, DC, to attend the International Executive Board meeting and the NABTU legislative conference. Then, I traveled to Local 182, Cedar Rapids, IA, to work with Business Manager Brian Cosgrove. We discussed work in the area and the amount of manpower the contractors needed. We also talked about looking for a new apprenticeship coordinator as the previous coordinator has resigned.

Brothers and sisters, please look at the last time your local constitution and by-laws have been revised. You should revise them at a maximum of no more than five years. Ask the International or your representative to take a look at them to see what changes need to be made. It is important that you keep these updated. ■

Report of International Vice President Brent Beasley

The quarter commenced with the celebration of Cesar Chavez Day, underscoring the importance of our efforts in labor rights advocacy. I participated in a Los Angeles/Orange County Building Trades Council Executive Board meeting, focusing on regional labor issues. Then at the Southern California Roofers Trust meeting there was discussion on apprenticeship programs, highlighting our commitment to member support.

Later I attended North America's Building Trades Unions' (NABTU) legislative conference and the International Executive Board meeting as assigned by President Hadel. The month concluded with an Orange County Labor Federation Executive Board meeting, where we strategized on increasing union participation and advancing workers' rights.

May began with a Los Angeles/Orange County Building Trades Council Executive Board meeting, reviewing projects and discussing apprenticeship and collective bargaining efforts. Then the National Apprenticeship Competition showcased our apprentices' skills, emphasizing the need for continuous investment in training. Throughout the month, I engaged in various trust and committee meetings, addressing topics such as pension plans and workforce development. Notably, the Santa Ana Workforce Development Board meeting explored collaborations for job training and growth. The Western District Council meeting in Fresno provided valuable

Then the National Apprenticeship Competition showcased our apprentices' skills, emphasizing the need for continuous investment in training. Throughout the month, I engaged in various trust and committee meetings, addressing topics such as pension plans and workforce development.

discussions on labor policies and workers' rights, enhancing our strategic efforts.

June was equally eventful, starting with the Pacific Coast Roofers Pension Plan full board meeting, which provided crucial updates on members' pensions. A trust meeting for the Southern California Roofers and Waterproofers focused on training programs and collective bargaining. Mid-month, the Orange County Labor Federation's Committee on Political Education meetings offered a platform to engage with local political candidates and advocate for pro-labor policies.

A significant highlight was attending the Roofers Leadership Training Program (LTP) at Washtenaw Community College in Ann Arbor, MI, fostering leadership and communication skills among union leaders. The quarter concluded with the Union Sportsmen's Alliance Capital Area Shoot in Washington, DC, promoting camaraderie among union members.

The past three months have been productive and impactful, reinforcing my dedication to advancing fair labor practices and worker advocacy. The events and meetings attended have strengthened my resolve and provided valuable insights, laying a solid foundation for future initiatives. I look forward to continued progress and achievements in the coming quarters. Thank you for your unwavering support and trust in my role. ■

Report of International Representative Leo Marsura

I begin my report at Local 2, St. Louis, MO, at the inaugural National Apprenticeship Competition. Thanks to Local 2 for hosting this event. They have the most advanced training facility I have seen. The nine young men who competed and the apprenticeship programs that trained them should all be proud of the exceptional professionalism and skills that were shown during the competition.

My next stop was Local 189, Spokane, WA, where I worked with Business Manager Michael Baker on several items. The Micron project in Boise, ID, is moving forward and the roofing portion of the project will soon be awarded. Michael is working with Helmets to Hardhats and other agencies to place local workers on this job.

I then traveled to Local 49, Portland, OR, where I conducted their union review and discussed issues with one of the union contractors. Business Manager Travis Hopkins has signed multiple three-year contracts across the state. I met the new organizer, Kevin Landreth, and we visited a jobsite where Snyder Roofing was working and met several members. Kevin is adapting to his new position quite well.

I then traveled to the Leadership Training Program (LTP) in Ann Arbor, MI. The instructors were excellent and kept the classes moving and educational. I recommend all apprenticeship representatives and union representatives attend this valuable training.

From there I went to Local 91, Salt Lake City, UT. I met with Business Manager Soledad Velasquez and I attended the local's union meeting where they voted to send attendees to the Tradeswomen Build Nations conference. Soledad is affiliated with the Wyoming State Building Trades and is collaborating with them on a large upcoming PLA project.

At Local 153, Tacoma, WA, I worked with Business Manager Richard Geyer. We reviewed financials for the local and for the Northwest District Council. I attended a special union meeting to ratify a three-year agreement for Local 153's area. The membership voted to ratify this agreement. I also attended the trades collaboration meeting where we discussed our next move in combating the attempts by the carpenters to steal work jurisdictions from other trades.

Then I moved on to Local 54, Seattle, WA, where I met with Business Manager Eddie Ramos. We met with a non-signatory contractor in the area that uses carpenters to do underlayment for their sheet metal work. Two carpenter reps at the meeting tried to discourage the contractor from signing with Local 54. The contractor later contacted Eddie and they are now reviewing the Local 54 contract and considering using roofers from Local 54. I also completed their union review.

I finish my report at Local 58, Colorado Springs, CO, where I worked with Business Manager Ray Gallegos. We visited the GM plant in Aurora to check on Niles Coatings. Ray has repeatedly caught them using another craft to perform roofers' work. Ray and I attended a career fair at the local community center. Ray then gave an apprenticeship presentation at the GAF Academy in Colorado Springs at the shop of Local 58's new contractor, Monument Roofing. ■

Honoring Those Who Made Our Union Great

With a sense of gratitude, The Journeyman Roofer & Waterproofer magazine publishes the names of members who have received service pins from their Local Unions since the previous magazine for 50 or more years of continuous membership.

Our long-term members fought for and struggled for the benefits that made our union great and we now enjoy. We appreciate all that these members have done and still do to further the goals of working people and their families. Next time you see a member listed below, take the time to thank him or her for their service and dedication to our Union.
